

Labour Market Information (LMI) for Lewisham

Understanding the local job market can help you make well-informed decisions about your career. Here are some key insights into the labour market in Lewisham:

- Growing Sectors: Health and social care, education, retail, and hospitality are key sectors driving Lewisham's economy.
- Education: With a growing population, there is consistent demand for teachers, teaching assistants, and early years professionals.
- Health and Social Care: The need for healthcare professionals, carers, and social workers remains high, with opportunities for long-term roles.
- Retail and Hospitality: Local high streets and cultural venues contribute to roles in customer service, food service, and leisure activities.
- Construction: Ongoing regeneration projects create opportunities for skilled trades and project management roles.

Current Job Trends

- Healthcare and Social Care: A critical area with demand for carers, nurses, and support workers.
- Education Roles: Opportunities for teachers and school support staff remain strong.
- Digital Skills: Increasing demand for IT professionals and digital marketing roles as businesses modernise.